RE: FY22 Consolidated Federal grants amendment

Board Meeting Date: November 9, 2021

The Board approved the original Consolidated Funding Application (CFA) in the federal fund in May 2021 based on the preliminary allocation we were provided by the state. The CFA includes Title I, Title II, Title III, IDEA Part B, and IDEA Preschool.

This amendment is necessary to budget unspent carryover funds from last school year as well as to budget an additional allocation of $28,417 awarded in October.

There were no major programmatic changes.

An additional $10,000 (bonus and benefits) was budgeted in IDEA Part B to provide a recruitment and retention incentive for our new and existing BEST (behavior) classroom teachers who complete the school year. This is one of our hardest to staff positions, and we currently have one opening.

This would be a one-time $2,000 bonus.

RE: Summer Learning Camps and Transportation Grant

Board Meeting Date: November 9, 2021

The Board approved the original Summer Learning and Transportation grants in May 2021 for the June summer school semester.

This amendment budgets the remaining amount of $490,289 for the second semester held in July 2021. This amendment is necessary since the program crossed two fiscal years. This does not represent any new money or programmatic changes.

Summer Learning and Transportation grants funded teachers, bus drivers, bus assistants, EA's, crossing guards, and materials and supplies.

We anticipate another round of grants to cover the cost of 2022 summer school.
